Do it sooner rather than later." "I was beginning the plan to write a book about cultural competency for healthcare professionals. As you know, professionals are busy, so traditional publishing was not really an option for me. I did not want to wait one to two years before I had my book." "The book was influential in helping to sell over $1 million in new recurring revenue for the business. I'm incredibly grateful for what Advantage did for us, both in the publication of the book, and ultimately, with how they helped us position the company for a great strategic outcome with an acquisition."
