From about 11 I essentially looked after myself. When I overheard a friends mother telling him "I love you" my reaction was that's weird. This book was like reading a description of me and my childhood. It has been extremely helpful to first of all realise that I am normal and having emotions and being sensitive aren't a bad things . Secondly to understand that I cannot change the past but I can improve the future. I still have a lot of reading and healing to go though!
