Zeus was a popular god in Graeco-Roman world. "The name of YAHshua has been replaced by the names of G-zeus (Jesus), meaning Hail Zeus (Iesus, and Iesus) which are pagan in origin." This Dictionary has a lot of stuff in it but I find a lot of the entries are more like short little remarks, like the subject name "Yahweh" rates one small paragraph. It is a good resource but you will have to go somewhere else for digging deep. A lot of illustration in small prints, black and white/gray, and the print is quite small. Still, for the price, not a bad addition to a study library. Your servant, Dan at yahshuaservant.com. 31. Metford, J.C.J., Dictionary of Christian Lore and Legend. 1983, London: Thames and Hudson.
