Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Preaching and Teaching Laudato Si is not a synopsis of Pope Francis Encyclical on the Environment, but a simply written primer for those who wish to preach, teach or reflect on the spiritual implications of a green agenda; it is a resource for those of any faith who wish to respond to the Pope's plea for ecological conversion. Though the book is primarily intended for preachers and teachers, it offers basic principles for anyone who wishes to learn more about sustainable living. Beginning with an introductory section which presents the range of ecological crises currently facing humanity, the book includes an Ecological Examination of Conscience based loosely (and somewhat playfully) on the idea of Negative and Positive Confessions from the Egyptian Book of the Dead. This Examination is not all-encompassing, but it does open readers to the possibility that their habits and lifestyle may be harming Creation. The intention here is not to create guilt, but to initiate change, however infinitesimal. There are two chapters which address Preachers, though the content may be useful for others as...

Laudato Siâ€™™: On Care For Our Common Home Discussion Guideâ€updated Mar. 2020. Care for persons in poverty. It reminds us that the earth, our common home "â€ is like a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace usâ€ (1). â€; Now, this earth, mistreated and abused, is lamenting, and its groans join those of all the forsaken of the world. Pope Francis invites us to listen to them, urging each and every one "â€ individuals, families, local communities, nations and the international community "â€ to an "â€œecological conversionâ€, according to the expression of Saint John Paul II. 9. Recent popes have written encyclicals about every two or three years. Laudato Siâ€™™ is Francisâ€™™s first major encyclical since he became pope in 2013 (the previous one was drafted by Benedict XVI and only completed by Francis).
