Celebrate Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II with this definitive photographic story of her public and private life, incl. glorious royal photography. A glorious royal life in pictures. Hello! Not only a showcase of royal history and tradition but also a collection of top-notch, classic photography. Brimming with history, tradition, glamour, and culture, the book spans the Queen's early years right through to her most recent state tours and ceremonies. Along the way, we trace her coming of age during World War II; her marriage, motherhood, and coronation; her encounters with such icons of their age as the Beatles, Marilyn Monroe, and JFK; and her extensive international travels. We visit the spectacular royal palaces and enjoy the infectious celebration of royal weddings and jubilees. The Early Flemish Pictures. By Lorne Campbell. 24.5—17.5 cm.
