If you are already a fan of Kat Martin's romantic suspense novels, then you will not be disappointed with Against the Mark, the latest upcoming release in The Raines of Canyon series. Even though I have only read one other book in the series, I had no problem jumping into this book and getting immersed in the featured romance and murder investigation into an art theft ring. Martin has written a well-developed suspense plot that complements an equally well-developed romance between Ty Brodie, an easy-going country boy from Texas and Haley Warren -RT Book Reviews, Against the Sun "[Martin] dishes up romantic suspense, sizzling sex and international intrigue in healthy doses, and fans are going to be the winners. Readers better set aside a block of time to finish this unputdownable tale of adventure and romance." -RT Book Reviews, Top Pick!, Against the Night "Against the Night is not like anything else I've read. I love a good suspense story, and this one packs one heck of a wallop." -Long and Short Reviews, Against the Wind "This is definitely a page-turner full of compassion and love shared by two unlikely souls.
