Description:

Are You a Treasure Seeker?

Pirates are on a constant quest for riches, but PIRATE leaders seek even greater rewards: amazing schools, engaged students, and empowered educators who know they are making a difference. In Lead Like a PIRATE, education leaders Shelley Burgess and Beth Houf map out the character traits necessary to captain a school or district.

You'll learn where to find the treasure that's already in your classrooms and schools-- and how to bring out the very best in your educators.

What does it take to be a PIRATE Leader?

- Passion--both professional and personal
- A willingness to Immerse yourself in your work
- Good Rapport with your staff, students and community
- The courage to Ask questions and Analyze what is and isn't working
- The determination to seek positive Transformation
- And the kind of Enthusiasm that gets others excited about education

The ultimate goal for any education leader is to create schools and districts where students and staff are knocking down the doors to get in rather than out. This book will equip and encourage you to be relentless in your quest to make school amazing for your students, staff, parents, and communities.

Are you ready to set sail?

You can be passionate about your students' achievements (professional passion), about teaching a particular grammar topic, eg. teaching Conditionals (content passion) or a particular sphere of interests (personal passion). When you are passionate, your students feel it. Make your lesson in a form of a quest. Give your student a code which leads to what you are going to study or revise. Then challenge them to do various tasks in grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation. Award them points or badges for each correct task. Surprise your students and teach food without flashcards but with trying real dishes, different flavour candies are great for tastes. Feel different materials. You can even go to a restaurant or an art gallery. Lead Like a Pirate. 1,379 likes · 2 talking about this. Creating schools where students are running to get in and not out! Making your school a better place will make everyone around you happier and will get you more pumped to go every day. In addition, a better atmosphere will also make you more productive. As a student, you can help other students and maintain a positive attitude and take the lead when it comes to promoting improvements in the school. As a faculty member or teacher, there are other strategies that you can use to create a better working environment. Whether you're a student, faculty member, or teacher, you should always be thinking of ways to make your school a better place. Steps. Method 1 3 A Students not going on the trip cannot have a day off school. B Students have to decide today if they would like to join the trip. C Students going on the trip must come to school first. 2. 4 A Pay for tickets online before picking them up at school. B Check the website for information about when tickets will be available. My aunt works there and she says it's amazing. The garden our class entered in the competition is very special. The flowers we've grown are all yellow! They look lovely on the video we made of the garden. We also grew lots of carrots and potatoes, and everyone says they taste fantastic. It was an interesting project.
