Title. The Best of Enemies: Israel and Transjordan in the War of 1948. Author. Uri Bar-Joseph. Glubbâ€™s papers establish two points. First, that military operational necessity best explains the actions of the Arab Legion in 1948 and that this was more important than the political objective by Transjordan and Israel to collude to divide Palestine. Second, the papers offer a new, augmented military history of the war taking into account daunting command and logistical challenges faced by the Legion.
