About 60% of millennials are middle class, compared with 70% of baby boomers who were at their age, he said, citing data from the OECD. Popular Articles. Average 401(k) balance. "The snapshot of modern life for middle class households around the world suggests that younger generations are increasingly being denied similar opportunities to their parents," Partington reported. The ability to buy a home is one of the main things millennials can't do that their parents did. Homes are 39% more expensive than they were nearly 40 years ago, according to Student Loan Hero. Evidence from different European countries by Benno Torgler and Friedrich Schneider — Abstract There is considerable evidence that enforcement efforts cannot fully explain the high degree of tax compliance. Previous studies have found differences in compliance behaviour across cultures. Novel in this paper is to investigate the impact of culture differences within a country rather than between countries. Evidence from the tax compliance literature shows the tendency that men are less compliant than women (for survey studies see, e.g., Vogel, 1974; Minor, 1978; Aitken and Bonneville, 1980; Tittle, 1980; for experiments, Spicer and Becker, 1980; Spicer and Hero, 1985; Baldry, 1987). - EDUCATION (continuous variable) Predicted sign The middle classes took advantage of the Industrial Revolution the most.
