In 2008, Holt wrote his autobiography "Walking on Water". In December 2009 he set out to cross the Atlantic Ocean on his yacht the Impossible Dream, aiming to become the first quadriplegic to do so.[3] He succeeded in this 2,700 mile crossing, arriving on 7 January 2010.[4]. Holt was appointed Member of the Order of the British Empire (MBE) in the 2010 Birthday Honours.[5]. Holt also won the title of Yachting Journalist Association (YJA) Pantaenius Yachtsman of the Year for 2010.[6] Of this award,he said "For me this is the knighthood of sailing." [7].
