There is a definite need for booklists such as this....Highlighting numerous titles on varied topics can only improve librarians' ability to serve this often under-reached segment of our reading population.— School Library Journal

Research indicates that boys are highly interested in reading nonfiction materials, yet most children's librarians prefer to booktalk fiction. Offering citations for more than 1100 books, Gotcha for Guys! is similar to Baxter's previous LU titles, but deals specifically with books to pique the interest of boys in grades K-8. Booktalks are grouped within chapters of high interest to boys such as Creepy-Crawly Creatures, Disasters and Unsolved Mysteries, Action and Innovation, and All Things Gross. Includes both new and older titles of particular interest to boys. Essential for booktalking as well as for collection development.

"I'm Gonna Getcha Good!" is a song co-written and recorded by Canadian singer Shania Twain. It was the lead single from her fourth studio album Up!, and was co-written by Twain and her then-husband Robert John "Mutt" Lange. "I'm Gonna Getcha Good!" was originally released to American radio on September 23, 2002. Shania chose "I'm Gonna Getcha Good!" as the first single for Up! since she felt it was relatable to past Shania singles, and she did not want something too unfamiliar. The song has become one [Chorus] C G I'm gonna getcha while I gotcha in sight Am F I'm gonna getcha if it takes all night C G F You can bet by the time I say "go" you'll never say "no".
